HOBBIES

I like cycling, a little swimming, and traveling a lot.
I am a practical person and like doing things with my hands, and love turning caffeine into codes.

While if I had some free time, I used that to learns a new skill in AI fields and wanted to change my career path to become an Applied AI Engineer.

Some fun-fact about me:
If I do stuck at both, I will travel to the mountains or beach without any electronics XD.
